On December 18, 1957, the New York Herald Tribune carried an item on page 19, captioned "US Orders Romanian Deported". This referred to an announcement by the Immigration and Naturalization Service on December 17, 1957, that NICOLAE MALAXA had been found "inadmissible" after lengthy hearings before a special inquiry officer, AARON I. MALTIN.

It was stated that MALAXA would receive five days in which to file an appeal with the Board of Immigration Appeals in Washington, DC.
